

ELITE PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

The Sparks are renowned for their commitment to player development. You won't just be playing games; you'll be immersed in a structured training environment focused on fundamental skills, advanced techniques, and smart baseball.

- Expert Coaching: You'll learn from coaches with professional and collegiate experience who genuinely know how to teach the game. They'll focus on refining your mechanics, improving your baseball IQ, and developing your mental toughness.
- Cutting-Edge Facilities: The Cangelosi Sparks train at state-of-the-art indoor facilities equipped with everything you need for year-round development—hitting cages, pitching mounds, strength and conditioning areas, and advanced technology for analysis. This means consistent, high-quality training regardless of the weather.
- Personalized Approach: While it's a team environment, coaches work to understand each player's strengths and areas for improvement, providing feedback and drills tailored to help you specifically grow.

UNMATCHED COMPETITION AND EXPOSURE

Playing for the Sparks means competing against the best talent in the Midwest and often nationally. This higher level of competition is essential for challenging yourself and identifying what it takes to excel.

- Tough Schedule: The 14U Sparks schedule is built to put you in front of top opponents, pushing you to perform under pressure and elevating your game. You'll learn to compete at a higher standard.
- Exposure Foundation: While 14U isn't about college recruitment, being part of a program with the Sparks' reputation starts building your profile early. College coaches and scouts know the quality of players coming through the Sparks system, giving you a significant head start as you progress into high school.

A CULTURE OF EXCELLENCE AND TEAMWORK

Beyond the drills and games, the Cangelosi Sparks instill a winning mindset and strong character traits.

- Discipline and Dedication: You'll learn the importance of hard work, discipline, and commitment—qualities that extend far beyond the baseball field.
- Team-First Mentality: The program emphasizes teamwork, camaraderie, and supporting your teammates, teaching you how to be an integral part of a successful unit. You'll build relationships with other serious baseball players who share your passion.
